Index

NB: page numbers in italic indicate figures, illustrations or tables above-the-line messages 30 Action 172–91, see also Action plan

  summary and references 190–91
Action plan 173–90
  approvals schedule 189–90 budgets 175–78, 179, 179–80, see also Action plan budgets communication and collaboration 187–88, 188 project plans 180–87, 181, 183, 184, 186, see also Action project plans recipe 173–75
  suppliers and third parties 188–89 Action plan budgets 175–78, 179, 179–80
  amplification channels 177–78
  behind-the-scenes crews 176 face-to-face training 176 logistics and transport 176 management 178
  production 176
  remote training 176
  reporting 178, 179, 179–80
  space hire 177
  staff costs 176
  staff/crew expenses 177
  stock control 177
Action project plans 180–87 checklists 187
  critical path analysis 182, 183
  external analysis: PESTEL factors 187, 188
  Gantt charts 180–81, 181, 182
  risk analysis 183–85, 186, 187 schedules 182–83, 184
  work breakdown structure (WBS) 180
advertising
  TV 8–9
agencies
  experiential marketing 51, 98
  media 43–45
  PR 46–49, see also PR agencies
  sales promotion 49–50
AIDA: awareness, interest, desire, action 6–8, 32
amplification channels 6, 177–78, 203, 231–32
Apple 29, 108
audience analyses: day in the life of affluent professional ideas 99–108 airline brand 101–02, 102, 103 gambling website 104–06, 106, 107–08 retail clothing brand 103–04 trendy youth idea 108–11
    microwave meal 110–11
    vodka brand 108–10
  yummy mummy (and ideas) 92–99 aspirations of 93–94, 94, 95 educational toys 95–96, 96, 97 girls' dancewear 97–99, 99
    yoghurt brand 93–95
awareness, shift in 28–32

B2B 21–23
Ben and Jerry's 43
  Sundae Festival 125
benefits 15–23, see also brand personality appropriateness for B2B 21–23 brand advocacy 15
  cost-effectiveness 24–25
BETTER model, using the 52, 52, 53, 53, 54–66, 253 brand personality 54–55, see also main entry emotional connection (and) 55–59 example of 57, 58, 59, 60

    key attributes 56
    multi-sensory elements 56–57
  exponential reach 63–64, 64, 65 reach 65–66
  summary and notes 66–67
  target audience 59, 61
  two-way interaction 61–63
BETTER model 34, 68, 69, 78, 80, 92, 94, 95, 98, 101, 103, 105, 109, 110, 122, 128, 134, 138
Blazinstar Experiential 21–22, see also international case studies brainstorming see BETTER model, using the brand, history of 76–77
brand ambassadors, recruiting (and) 157–61 briefing 159
  managing 160–61
  training 140, 159–60
brand ambassadors, selecting (and) 140, 152–57, 158 contingencies 156–57
  matching to target audience/aspirational lifestyles 153–55 life insurance 154–55
    nappy brand 153
    nicotine patch 154
    tanning product 153–54
  suited to brand and experiential objectives 155–56 streetwear 155, 156
brand ambassadors 41, 62–64, 70, 72, 83–84, 87–89, 95, 97, 98, 106, 117–18, 129, 131, 133, 161–62, 165, 195, 203 brand awareness 15, 135 brand personality 15–20, 54–57, 59, 61–64, 66, 69, 78–79, 81–82, 101, 105, 123, 125–26, 128–29, 133 bringing to life the 15–16, 52, 55 and target audience 16–20 branded gifts 136

change analysis 204, 210, 211
change management 196 communication 114, 114, 115–21
  and emotional/rational messages 115 key 114
  and verbal messages 114
consumer relationships 33
critical path analysis 180, 182, 183
criticisms (and) 23–26
  confusion with field marketing 23–24
  cost 25
  event marketing 23
  measurement 25–26
  negative perceptions 24
customer experience management (CEM) 10–11, 37, 42–43, 108 customer lifetime value (CLV) 210 customer relationship management (CRM) 4, 10–11 customer research 31
customer retention 10

definition of experiential marketing 5–8, 214–15 differentiator – experiential marketing 9–15 effectiveness, gauging (by) 192–99, 201–03, 203, see also measurement flexibility and change management solutions 196, 197, 198 real-time reporting and online client access pages 195–96

  summary 198–99
  systems and mechanisms enabling 193–95 emotional connection 55–59, 69, 78 evaluation (by/and) 164, 200–13 campaign evaluation (post-campaign) 203–12
  change analysis 210, 211
  experiential scorecard 204, 204, 205, 213
  LROI 200, 205–10, 213, see also long-term return on investment (LROI) ROI 205–06, 209, 213, see also return on investment (ROI) strengths, weaknesses and insights 212
  summary and notes 212–13
  visual evidence review 211–12 written section 202–03, see also effectiveness, gauging experience-driven organizations 32
experiential marketing
  as differentiator 9–15
  cost-effectiveness of 24–25
  scale of 26
  understanding value of 24
  see also benefits
experiential marketing explained 5–6, 6, 7–8 and AIDA 6–8

experiential objectives 74, 80–90, 155–56, 165, 166–67, 194, 227–29 marketing campaigns 81–89, 200, see also main entry summary and note 90
experiential scorecard 204, 204, 205
experiential strategy (and) 122–38 integrating selected elements 127–28 memorable and ongoing experience 135–37 scenarios 128–35, see also experiential strategy scenarios STRATEGIES 122–27, see also main entry
  summary and references 137–38
experiential strategy scenarios 128–35 educational + interactive technology + set 134–35 educational + service + research + set 128–29, 129 game + televised/broadcast 133–34 research + entertainment + advert + game (competition) 132–33, 133 service + set 131, 132 theatre + advert + game 129–30, 130
external analysis see PESTEL

Facebook 8, 95, 108, 135 figures
  amplification channels 6
  communication process 114 critical path analysis sample 183 schedule example 184
  top line concept using BETTER model 53
fragmentation of media channels 32 further reading 258–59

Gantt charts 180–81, 181, 182
Generation X 8, 32
Generation Y 8, 32, 107–08, 135

IDEA 68, 68, 69–73, 78, 80, 94, 105, 253 approximate budget 72–73 choosing the topline idea 73
  details 69, 70, 70–71
  evaluation 71–72
  inspiration and illustration 69 ideas, topline 68, 71, 73, 101, 103 Innocent Smoothies 43
  and Fruitstock 125
intellectual property 41
international case studies on 241–51
  Danone Essensis (VIP ideas, Ireland) 241–43
  Gordon Ramsay's Cookalong LIVE (Blazinstar Experiential, England) 243–44
  LG Viewty camera phone (5-ive Senses, Australia) 244–45
  Unilever Persil (Out of the Blue Communications, UK) 245–46
  Vodafone (Onepartners Brand Experience Group, Australia) 246–47
  MSNBC (Brand Experience Lab, USA and England) 248–49, 249
  Volvo (Brand Experience Lab, USA and England) 249, 249, 250
  Samsung Mobile (Launch Factory, South Africa) 250 internet generation 8, see also Generation Y interviews (on) 214–40
  creatives and the live brand experience 224–25
  definition of experiential marketing 214–15 effectiveness of experiential marketing 221–22 evolution of live marketing 215–17 expectations of ROI and experiential marketing campaigns 237–39 experiential marketing and specific target audiences 229–30 experiential marketing mix 230–31 experiential marketing, summing up 239–40 importance of brand ambassadors 232–34 integration of amplification channels 231–32 key planning issues in experiential marketing 225–26 live brand experiences compared to other marketing channels 217–19 live brand experiences in marketing communications strategy 227 marketers and experiential objectives 227–29 marketing budget changes 219–21 measuring and evaluating experiential marketing campaigns 236–37 pros/cons for outsourcing brand/keeping campaigns in-house 222–24 pros/cons of live brand experiences in different locations/environments 234–35 situation and background of brands 226–27

Jack Morton Worldwide 90, 95, 112, see also surveys/studies jargon 254–57

key performance indicators (KPIs) 164–65, 166–65, 194 live brand experience(s) 7, 28–32, 41, 64–66, 72, 81–88, 96, 101–02, 104, 106–09, 111, 115, 124–25, 127–28, 130–31, 133–37, 140–44, 164, 171, 175, 190, 192, 193–95, 200, 202–12, see also international case studies as theatre productions 152 live brand experience locations 144–51, 203 at an exhibition 145–46, 146

  at events 144–45
  at sports match/game 145
  and footfall 142
  in-store 144
  logistics and practical factors of 142–43 offices 148–49, 149
  on the beach 150–51, 151
  online 146–47
  outside stores 147
  shopping malls 147–48, 148 skiing/snowboarding slopes 149–50, 150 locations 139–62, see also brand ambassadors, selecting and live brand experience locations choosing 140–44
  recruiting brand ambassadors see brand ambassadors, recruiting logistics 72, 142–43, 176 long-term return on investment (LROI) 171, 174, 205–10 calculating for live brand experiences 206–10

market research 104
marketing
  event 23
  field 23–24, 33
  in-house 39–43
  messages/adverts 114–15
  traditional 26
marketing campaigns (to) 81–89 bring brand personality to life 81 communicate complex brand messages 85–86, 86 create memorable brand experience 82–83 drive product trial and sign up members 83–84, 84 drive word-of-mouth 81–82 increase customer loyalty 88 increase footfall in store 88–89 increase sales 84–85, 85 position the brand 86–87, 87
  target new audience 87–88 marketing communication 3–5 digital 4
  direct mail 4
  public relations (PR) 4
  sales promotion 4
  sponsorship 4
  viral 4
  word-of-mouth 5, 13–14, 66, 95, 128, 137
measurement 25–26, 75, 163–71, 193–95, 201–02 spending on 164–69, 170
  and experiential objectives and KPIs 165, 166–67
    and objectives and measurements 168–69 quantitative/qualitative data for 165
  summary 169, 171
  systems and mechanisms for 75, 163–71 and gauging effectiveness 193–95 media fragmentation 8
media partnership 124
Message – key communication 113, 114, 114–21, 122, 137 bringing message to life 116–20 skincare 120
    vitamin water 116, 117, 117–18 washing powder 118–19, 119
  summary and references 120–21
mobile phones 20, 87–88 MySpace 8, 108

negative perceptions 33
Nike 29, 43, 108

outsourcing vs in-house 36–51 in-house, pros and cons of 39–43 outsourcing to media or full service-agency, pros and cons of 43–45
  summary 50–51
  working with PR agency, pros and cons for 46–48 working with sales promotion agency, pros and cons of 49–50

PESTEL 36–37, 180, 187, 188
PR agencies 46–49, 82, 89, 98–99, 105–07
  Shine 46

research 123–24, see also surveys/studies on competitors 78
resource levels 26–28
return on investment (ROI) 33, 204, 205–06, 209
risk analysis 180, 183–85, 186, 187

selected locations see locations SET MESSAGE model 38, 68, 71, 74–76, 80, 92–93, 94–95, 98–99, 101–03, 105, 107, 109–12, 120, 122, 128, 131, 132, 139, 139, 143, 150, 154, 162, 164–65, 171, 173, 175, 187, 190–91, 200–04, 253, see also Message – key communication action 75
  evaluation 75
  experiential objectives 74
  experiential strategy 75 gauging effectiveness 75
  message – key communication 74
  selected locations/brand ambassadors 75 situation and background 74, 76–78 systems and mechanisms for measurement 75
  target audience 74
situation and background 74–79, see also SET MESSAGE model social networking 8, 95, 135
Sony 29, 43, 108
STRATEGIES 122–27, 128
  adverts 124
  education 126
  entertainment 125
  game (or competition) 125-026 interactive technology 126 research 123–24
  service 123
  set 127
  televised/broadcast 124 theatre 123
strategy see experiential strategy surveys/studies
  Jack Morton Worldwide 14, 34–35
  MICE group of senior marketers 13, 35 on Generation Y and live brand experiences (Jack Morton Worldwide) 107 systems and mechanisms for measurement see measurement tables

  BETTER model 52
  budget sample 179
  change control log 198 change request form 197 elements and attributes (BETTER model) 58 elements and attributes for brownie mixes (BETTER model) 60 experiential objectives and KPIs 166–67
  experiential scorecard 203
  GANTT chart sample 181
  IDEA 68
  MSBNC and Volvo results (case study) 249 objectives and measurements 168–69
  PESTEL problem and solution 188 risk analysis form 186 target audiences 69, 78–79, 81, 82–83, 86, 91–112, 114–20, 122, 123–29, 131–32, 137, 139–43, 145, 153–55, 161–62, 169, 173, 209, 211 analysing 92–111, see also audience analyses: day in the life of demographics of 141, 148
  notes 112
  state of mind of 141–42
  summary 111–12
terminology 254–57
traditional approaches, effectiveness of 8–9 traditional marketing 26 TV advertising 8–9, 75, 102, 183–84, 193 word-of-mouth marketing/reach 5, 13–14, 66, 95, 128, 137, 174, 206–09

YouTube 135