

Contents

Preface	v
1. Time: a key resource – opportunities and difficulties	1
Making it work 3; A personal approach 4; The productivity gain 5; Speculate to accumulate 7; Perfect time 8
2. First steps towards effective time management	11
Your work mix 12; Assessing your current working practice 14; Plan the work and work the plan 17; What kind of system? 19; Setting clear objectives 21; Thinking ahead 23; Spend time to save time 25; Taking time to think 26; Be prepared to say ‘no’ 27; To be, or not to be (perfect) 28; Work smarter not longer 30; Reward yourself 31
3. Getting (and staying) organised	34
Work the plan 36; Batch your tasks 37; Use your diary effectively 38; Schedule appointments with care 40; Clear your desk 41; Avoid ‘cherry picking’ 42; Use abstracts 43; The internet 44; Highlight key facts 45; Insist on quality 45; Action or investment 47; A good personal assistant

- (or secretary) 48; Use a ‘document parking’ system 51; Make use of checklists 52; Directing the techniques at particular result areas 53; Intermission... take a break 55
- 4. Combating the time wasters 57
The greatest time waster? 58; Handling personal interruptions 62; Handling telephone interruptions 66; Save time getting through 68; Make messages accurate 69; E-mail 70; On the move 71; Thinking about e-mail 75
- 5. First things first 82
Pareto’s law 83; Make the miscellaneous a priority 85; Schedule – backwards 86; Be honest about deadlines 87; Review task methodology 89; Eliminate the unnecessary 90; Danger – keep your distance 92; Be confident of your priorities 93
- 6. Controlling the paperwork 95
Aim to minimise paperwork 96; Make a habit of brevity 97; Minimal memos 99; Minimise your paper handling 100; Do not let files and filing waste time 101; Keep papers neat 104; Computerise it – but carefully 105; Do not duplicate information unnecessarily 107; Do not proliferate information unnecessarily 107; Do not put it in writing 109; Write faster 110; WPB – the most time-saving object in your office 110
- 7. Working with other people 112
The socialising organisation 113; Informal contact 114; Making a working lunch work 116; Consider a day out 117; No conflict – no wasted time 118; The right people 120; The need for clear instructions 121; Don’t do it – delegate 122; Swap tasks to save time 128; Develop your people 129; Simply the most time-saving phrase in the language 131; Do not hover 133; Motivate your people 134; Provide specific time management help for staff 135; Make and keep some firm rules 136;

Meetings – danger or opportunity 138

8. Final words	144
Appendix: Time management format examples	146