accommodations, request about, 349–350 account representatives, introducing, 168–170 addresses, 19–20, 38–39 advertising letters, 37

see also sales and marketing letter(s) advice, thanks for, 401–402 agreement, subject/verb, 46–48 ambiguous language, 9–10 analysis of subject and reader, 5–6 anniversary dates, acknowledging, 111–112, 319–320 annual meeting(s)
announcing/requesting proxy statement for, 175, 179 inviting stockholders to, 175, 181–182 letter accompanying proxy for, 175, 178 annual reports, cover letters for, 175, 182–184 antecedents (of pronouns), 46 apology letter(s), 135–144 for damaged goods, 135, 138, 148, 151 for delayed shipment, 135, 139 for employee's rudeness, 135, 136 general, 135–136
for incorrect billing, 142, 151 for out-of-stock product, 144 for overcharging customer, 141 for product defect, 135, 137 for service delay, 140
apostrophe, use of, 461 appearance, 29–42
of block format, 32–33
of e-mail, 40–42
of envelopes, 38–39
and format choice, 31
of full block format, 31–32 of hanging-indented letter format, 37–38 and length of letter, 15 of memorandums, 39–40
of official-style format, 36–37 of semiblock format, 34 of simplified-letter format, 35–36 of stationery, 30
applications, job, see job application letter(s); job application response letter(s) appointments
confirmation of, 343
requests for, 87–90
article(s)
accepting invitations to contribute, 420 complimenting author on, 432–433 declining invitations to contribute, 424 requests for corrections to, 121 requests for reprints of, 357 thank-you letters for compliments on, 398 thank-you letters for mention in, 394 “as,” 45
attachments, 26–27, 41
attention notes, 21
attitude, conveying, 9 “avoids,” 51
balance sheets, letters accompanying, 175, 184–185 billing error(s)
apology for, 141–143
correction of, 239–240
customer letter concerning, 226 birthdays, letters for, 433–434 block format, 18, 21–25, 32–33 see also full block format bonuses, offer of jobs with, 278–280 books, permission to include material in, 375–378 business associate, hospitalized, 448–450 business products and services, sales/marketing of, 63–65, 67–69
catalogs
requests for, 83, 84
sales/marketing letters for, 83–86 “cc,” 27
change-in-location letters, 161–162 charge account correction, requests for, 356 charitable contribution request(s) to business associates, 441–442 declining, because of opposition to cause, 444–445 declining, due to limited funds, 443–444 declining, due to previous commitments, 442–443 to neighbors, 439–440 charitable event, invitation to, 416–417 checks, stopping payment on, 207 clarification requests, replies to, 366–367 clarity of language, 9–11 clichés, 51
client(s)
client appreciation programs for, 82 credit history request to, 200–201 introduction letter to, 62 welcome letters to new, 107–108 closings, 6, 23–24, 162 collection letters, see credit and collection letter(s) colon, use of, 462
color (of stationery), 30 comma, use of, 462
commendation letter(s), 292–298 for community recognition, 295 for job well done, 292
for large sale, 294
for new idea, 296
to outside staff, 298–299
for outstanding report, 293 for own staff, 297
to vendors, 237–239
commercial credit, letter requesting, 189–190 community recognition, commendation for, 295 company name, 19, 38–39 complaint letter(s)
  about sales representatives, 241, 243 about unsatisfactory products, 241–242 complaint resolution letter(s), 123–134 to acknowledge complaint and indicating company policy, 128 to acknowledge complaint that appears to be unfounded, 129 to acknowledge receipt of complaint, 123, 124 after frequent attempts to resolve problem, 133–134 agreement with customer’s complaint in, 127 detailed, 131–132
disagreeing with customer in, 130 to instruct customer on procedure to clarify billing, 123–125 to notify customer that information for resolution was not sent, 124, 126 complimentary closes, 23–24 conciseness, 15
conditions of employment, job offer with, 278–279 condolence, letters of, 450 conferences invitation of press to, 114–115 registration acknowledgments for, 364–365 confidentiality, letters of, 175, 186–187 confidential notes, 17–18 confirmation letter(s), 339–347 for appointments, 343
  follow-up to, 95, 99
  for job offers, 275–277
  for prices and quantity discounts, 341 for proposals, 95–98
  for receipt of materials, 346–347
  for speaker arrangements, 342 for supplier’s oral instructions, 339–340 for telephone conversations, 248–250 for travel plans, 344
congratulations to customer on promotion, 120 on new membership, 77–78
on new position, 446–447 on opening of business, 451 on retirement, 308–309
consumer services, sales/marketing letters for, 63, 66–67 continuation sheets, 18, 23, 30 contract(s)
  award of, 231
  cancellation of, 244
  transmittal letters for, 332 contributions, thanks for, 390–392 “copy to,” 27
corporate downsizing, layoff due to, 317–319 correction request letters, 121 courtesy titles, 19–20, 25 cover letter(s)
  for annual reports, 175, 183–184
  for contracts, 386
credit and collection letter(s), 189–226 about deposit due, 223–224 about returned checks, 195–197 to acknowledge partial payment, 221–222 to acknowledge payment, 223 after payment to still-delinquent account, 216 to announce credit policy change, 192–194 to clear disputed items, 206 from customer about billing error, 226 to deny credit, 201–202
as final overdue notice, 208, 212 as first reminder after monthly statement, 208–209 as follow-up for no response to second notice, 208, 209, 215 credit and collection letter(s) (continued)

as fourth overdue notice, 208, 211 to get credit references, 198–201

to grant credit, 202–203

to indicate insufficient funds, 195, 197

from law firm, 217

to offer retail credit, 203–204

to outline credit terms of rental arrangement, 204–205 to raise credit limit, 205 to reinstate credit, 220

to renegotiate payment terms, 224–225 to request client’s credit history, 200–201 to request commercial credit, 189–190 to request credit information, 191 to request employment information, 198–200

as second notice on charges due, 208, 209, 214 to send credit information, 191 to slow-paying valued customer, 194 to stop payment on check, 207 to suspend credit, 219

as third overdue notice, 208, 210 customers, billing error letters from, 226 customers, letter(s) to announcing client appreciation program, 82 to congratulate on promotion, 120 to thank for business, 152, 155 to thank for referrals, 152, 153 to thank for repeat business, 152, 156 to thank for support, 152, 154 to thank for testimonials, 152 who are valued but slow payers, 194 who received collection letter by mistake, 218 customer service letter(s), 123–188 to acknowledge orders, 145 of apology, 135–144

to deny an unreasonable request, 188

for incorrect product shipments, 146–147 to inform of change in location, 161–162

to lapsed customers, 157

to notify customers of store closings, 162 pricing issues in, 158–160

on project status, 163–166 to provide product/service information, 148–151 to reply to information requests, 148–149 to resolve a complaint, 123–134

for sales/marketing, 73–74

to stockholders, 175–187

damaged goods, apology for, 135, 138

dangling modifiers, 48

dash, use of, 463

dateline, 17–18

decision maker, letters to find, 94–95

definitions, unnecessary, 51 delayed shipment, apology for, 135, 139 demotion, because of economic conditions, 312–313 deposit due letters, 223–224 difficult-to-see prospects, letters to, 93

dinner

invitations to, 410

thank-you letters for, 397

directness (of statements), 10 disputed credit items, clearing, 206 distribution notations, 27

distributor’s name, request for, 234

donations

declining requests for, 442–443

requesting, 434–435

economic conditions

demotion because of, 312–313 firing of vendor due to, 245

editorial board, declining to serve on, 425

American Management Association
www.amanet.org
educational seminars, 71–73
Edward Jones & Company, 41
ellipsis, use of, 463
e-mail, 27, 40–42
Emerson, Ralph Waldo, on consistency, 50 emphases, placement of ideas for, 6 employee(s)
  announcement of new, 301 anticipated promotion not received by, 300 apology for rudeness of, 135, 136 demoting, due to economic conditions, 312–313 farewell letters to, 322–323 health-related retirement of, 308–309 hospitalized, 448–449
  ill, 448
  requesting references for, 291
  terminated, 289–290
  welcome to new, 285
employment information, request for, 198–200
enclosure notations, 26–27
envelopes, 38–39
errors, grammatical, 44–49
exclamation point, use of, 463 executive letterhead, 30 executive positions, job offers for, 275, 277–278 exhibit visitor follow-up letters, 102–103 explanations, unnecessary, 51 facts, researching, 3–5 final invoices, transmittal letters for, 338 firing of vendor due to economic conditions, 245 focus of attention, 13–15
fonts, 30
formatting
  basic rules for, 22–23
  block, 32–33
  full-block, 18, 22–24, 31–32 hanging-indented, 37–38 official-style, 36–37
  semiblock, 34
  simplified-letter, 35–36
  see also part(s) of a letter forms, requests for completion of, 353–354 free products
  replies to requests for, 371
  requests for, 359–360
full block format, 31–32
  attention notes in, 21 block format vs., 32
  body of letter in, 22, 23
  complimentary close in, 23–24 continuation sheet in, 23 dateline in, 18
  signature block in, 24
  subject line in, 22
fund-raising letters, see public service and fund-raising letter(s) grammar check function, 43 grammar issue(s), 43–51 antecedents of pronouns as, 46
  capitalization as, 50
  clichés as, 51
  and common errors, 44–49
  dangling modifiers as, 48 jargon as, 50
  parallel structure as, 49
  punctuation as, 49–50
  and rules of grammar, 44
  spelling as, 50
  split infinitives as, 48–49 subject/verb agreement as, 46–48 wordiness as, 51
  wrong pronouns as, 44–46
Grimes, Larry E., on grammar, 453 half-sheet stationery, 30 hanging-indented letter format, 18, 21–25, 37–38 heading (on continuation sheets), 23 health center membership marketing letters, 74–75, 76–77
“her,” 44
holiday greetings, 110–111 hospitality, thanks for, 389, 391 hospitalized business associate, letter to, 448–450
hospitalized employees, letter to,
    448–449
hyphen, use of, 463

“I,” 14, 15, 44–45
identification lines, 26 ill employee, letter to, 448 incorrect product shipment letter, 146–147
incorrect word use, 455–459 increases, price, 158–159 indefinite pronouns, 47 industry information, letter accompanying, 118–120
infinitives, split, 48–49
inflated language, 10
informal invitations, accepting, 418 information about members, replies to
    requests for, 367–368
inside addresses, 19–20 insufficient funds letter, 195, 197 intensifiers, weak, 51 interest, letters of, 90–92 interoffice correspondence, 39–40 interview requests, job, see job interview request letter(s)
introduction, letter(s) of, 55–62 for company, 114–116
    for existing company and its services, 58–60
    as follow-up to brief meeting, 58, 61 for new company, 58–59
    to new contact at client company, 62 for new salesperson, 55, 56
    from new salesperson, 57
investors, letters to prospective, 175–176 invitation(s), 411–417
    accepting, 418–422
    accepting informal, 418 to charitable events, 416–417 to contribute article (accepting), 420 to contribute article (declining), 424 declining, 423–428
    to dinner, 410
    to hear a speaker, 413
    issuing, 411–417
    to open house, 114, 411 of press to conference, 114–115 to quarterly business meetings, 415 to serve in civic positions, 422 to serve on editorial board, 425 to sit on a not-for-profit board, 417 to speak (accepting), 419, 421 to speak (declining), 423, 426
    to speakers, 412, 413
    to special event, 412
    of stockholders to annual meeting, 175, 181–182
jargon, 50
job advice, interview request seeking, 248, 250–251
job application letter(s)
    to accompany résumé, 253–255
    interview request letters as follow-up to, 257
    from person seeking to change jobs, 253–255
    from recent graduates, 253–254 job application response letter(s), 259–272
    to acknowledge application for position, 259–260
    to invite applicant for second interview, 259, 261
    to partially qualified applicant, 267 to person recommending unhired candidate, 270, 271
to provide status report on employee search, 259, 262 to qualified applicant, 259, 260 to qualified applicant when no position is available, 264 to qualified applicant who did not match position, 265

to reject an online advertisement applicant, 268

to reject person recommended for job, 270 to reject solicited application, 272 to reject summer job applicant, 269 to unqualified applicant, 263

when someone else got the job, 266

job candidacy, letter withdrawing, 258 job interview request letter(s), 247–252

to accompany résumé, 253–255

to apply for a job, 255–256 based on newspaper advertisement, 247–249 on basis of referral, 248, 251–252

as follow-up to letter of application, 257

from person seeking to change jobs, 253–255

as phone conversation follow-up, 248–250 from recent graduate, 253–254 to seek job advice, 248, 250–251

to thank prospective employer for job interview, 252 to withdraw candidacy for position, 258

job interview(s)

inviting applicant for second, 259, 261

thank-you letter to prospective employer for, 252 job offer(s), 275–282

accepting or rejecting, 282–284

with conditions of employment, 278–279

confirming, 275–277

for executive position, 275, 277–278

for job with bonus, 278–280

for job with stock options, 278, 280–281

making, 275–276

for summer intern position, 281–282

job promotion letters, 299–300

job well done letters, 292

language

clarity vs. ambiguity in, 9–11

correct use of, 455–459

and jargon, 50

spoken vs. written, 44

see also grammar issue(s)

lapsed customers, letters to, 157 large sale, commendation for, 294 law firm, collection letter from, 217 leave of absence, letter regarding, 310–311 legislation, urging support of, 445–446

length

of e-mail, 40

of letters, 15

of paragraphs, 15, 23

letterhead, 23, 24, 30

letters of interest, 90–92

lists, parallel structure in, 49 losing bidders, notification of, 232 lost sale follow-up letters, 99, 101

luncheons, thanks for, 403

mailing notations, 39

manuscript transmittal letters, 336–337

margins, 30

see also part(s) of a letter

marketing letters, see sales and marketing letter(s)

material request(s)

replies to, 368–370

for return of materials, 353, 354

to a speaker, 355
maternity leave, notifying employer of, 310–311 “me,” 44, 45
meeting(s)
  introduction letter as follow-up to brief, 58, 61 reserving facilities for, 429–430 sales and marketing follow-up to, 99–100 members, requests for information about, 367–368 membership
  congratulations on, 77–78
  follow-up to offers of, 74–76 marketing of, in health centers, 74–77 request for, in club, 430–431 sales/marketing letter for extension of, 74–75 sales/marketing letter for renewal of, 77–80 second notice for renewal of, 77, 79–80 memorandums, 39–40, 175, 185–186 mentor relationship, request for, 321–322 mergers, announcement of, 116–117 model letters, 53
modified block format, see block format modifiers, dangling, 48 monitoring of e-mail, 41 names
  on envelopes, 38
  in inside addresses, 19–20
new business
  announcement of formation of, 118–119
  congratulations on, 451
  letter of introduction for, 58–59
new employees
  announcement of, 301
  welcoming, 285
new ideas, commendation for, 296
new positions, congratulations on, 446–447 new product(s)
  replies to requests for information on, 372 requesting information on, 360 new shareholders, letters to, 175, 177 newspaper advertisements, job interview requests based on, 247–249 new subscribers, welcome letters to, 71–72 no-longer-with-us letters, 305–306 nominations, thanks for, 400 nominative case pronouns, 47 not-for-profit board, invitation to sit on, 417 numbered material, 23
number(s) in addresses, 20
  plural vs. singular, 46
objective case pronouns, 45 objectives for letters, 6–7 official-style format, 18, 19, 21–25, 36–37
on-arrival notations, 39 online advertisement applicant, rejecting, 268 open house, invitations to, 114, 411 orders
  acknowledgment of, 145, 363–364 placing, with vendors/suppliers, 233 resolution of incorrect, 240–241 Osborne, Dorothy (Lady Temple), on language in letters, 1 outings, thanks for, 396 outlining of letters, 3–6 out-of-stock items
  apology for, 144
  letter informing of, 148, 149 outside person, recommendation of, 287–288 outside staff, commendation for, 298–299 overcharging, apology for, 141 overdue notices, see credit and collection letter(s) padding, avoidance of, 51 panelist on talk show, thank-you letter to, 390, 393 paragraphs, 6, 15, 22–23 parallel structure, 49

parentheses, use of, 463 partially qualified job applicants, letters to, 267 partial payment, letter accepting, 221–222 part(s) of a letter, 17–28 attention notes as, 21
complimentary close as, 23–24 and continuation sheets, 23 dateline as, 17–18
distribution notations as, 27
enclosure/attachment notations as, 26–27 identification line as, 26 inside address as, 19–20 paragraphs as, 22–23
personal/confidential notes as, 17–18
postscripts as, 28
reference line as, 18
salutation as, 21–22
signature block as, 24–25
subject line as, 22
payment(s)
acceptance of partial, 221–222
acknowledgment of, 223
of amount different from invoice, 327 final, 331
to not-so-great speaker, 328–329 to outstanding speaker, 328 renegotiating terms of, 224–225 replies to remittance of, 365–366 to reviewer, 330
on still-delinquent accounts, 216 transmittal letters with, 325–331 period, use of, 464
permission(s), 375–387
denial of, 384–385
granting of, 382–383
to include material in book, 375–378 to quote from critic’s review, 375, 379 for reprints, 375–379
and request for more information, 380–381 personal favors, thanks for, 389, 390 personality, 12
see also tone
personal letters, see social and personal letter(s) personal notations, 18
personnel letter(s), 247–323 about job promotions, 299–300 to accept/reject job offers, 282–284 to acknowledge anniversary date, 319–320 to announce new employee, 301 to announce staff changes, 320–321 of commendation, 292–298 of congratulations on retirement, 308–309 to demote employee because of economic conditions, 312–313 to employee not getting promotion, 300 to employee retiring for health reasons, 308–309 of farewell to employee, 322–323 to grant leave of absence, 311 to introduce a new account representative, 168–170 no-longer-with-us, 305–306 to notify employer of maternity leave, 310–311 to offer a lower position because of economic conditions, 312 to offer job, 275–282 personnel letter(s) (continued)
to offer promotion, 299 to recommend an outside person, 287–288 of recommendation, 286–291 to refuse request for raise, 303–305
to reject an online advertisement applicant, 268
of reprimand, 313–314
to request a mentor relationship, 321–322 to request job interviews, 247–252 to request raise, 302
of resignation, 307
to respond to job application, 259–272 retirement-related, 308–309 of termination, 314–319 to thank people who recommended applicants, 273–274 to welcome new employees, 285 phone conversations, see telephone conversation(s) phrases, correct use of, 455–459 planning, 3–7
plural words, 46–48
politicians, urging support of bill by, 445–446 pompous language, 10
possessive case pronouns, 45
postscripts, 28
press, conference invitation to, 114–115 pretentiousness, 51
previous contributors, letters to, 435–436 previous sales, follow-up to, 102–103 pricing, 158–160
confirmation of, 341
customer service letters about, 158–160 increases in, 158–159
no increase in, 158–160 requests for information on, 361 and volume discounts information, 158, 160 product-handling letter, 167 product or service information letter(s), 148–151 to apologize for damaged shipment, 148, 151 to customer requesting information, 148–149 for new products, 360, 372
for out-of-stock items, 148, 149 to suggest substitute product, 148, 150 from vendors/suppliers, 235 product(s)
apology for defect in, 135, 137
business, 63–65
incorrect shipment of, 146–147 requests for free, 359–360 response to inquiries on, 86 sales/marketing letters with, 63–64 suggestion of substitute, 148, 150 professional services, thanks for, 399 professional titles, 19 program chairpersons, thank-you letters to, 405 progressive discipline, 314 project participants, thank-you letters to, 407 project status letter(s), 163–166 promotions, 120, 299–300 pronouns, 13–15, 44–47
proposal(s)
confirming, 95–98
sales/marketing follow-up to, 105 proxy statement(s)
letter accompanying, 175, 178 receipt of, 175, 181
reminder to send in, 175, 180 public relations letter(s), 112–113 to accompany industry information, 118–120 to announce formation of new business, 118–119
| To announce merger of two companies, | 116–117 |
| To congratulate customer on promotion, | 120 |
| To introduce company, | 114–116 |
| To invite people to open house, | 114 |
| To invite press to conference, | 114–115 |
| To offer retainer to public relations firm, | 112–113 |
| To request a correction to an article, | 121 |
| Public service and fund-raising letter(s), | 434–442 |
| For charitable contribution from business associate, | 441–442 |
| For charitable contribution from neighbors, | 439–440 |
| To decline charitable request because of limited funds, | 443–444 |
| To decline charitable request because of opposition to cause, | 444–445 |
| To politician urging support of bill, | 445–446 |
| To raise funds from a fellow alumnus, | 436–437 |
| To raise funds from previous contributors, | 435–436 |
| To request a donation, | 434–435 |
| To request a public service, | 438–439 |
| To thank people for service, | 390, 392 |
| Punctuation, | 49–50, 461–464 |
| Qualified job applicants, responding to, | 259, 260, 264–265 |
| Qualified recommendation letters, | 288–289 |
| Quantity discount(s) | 341 |
| Letters to vendors/suppliers about, | 236 |
| Quarterly business meetings, invitations to, | 415 |
| Question mark, use of, | 464 |
| Questionnaires, request for completion of, | 352–353 |
| Quotation marks, use of, | 464 |
| Quotations, | 23 |
| Raise(s) | 302 |
| Refusing request for, | 303–305 |
| Requesting, | 302 |
| Reader(s) | 4–6 |
| Analysis of, | 13–15 |
| Receipt of materials, confirming, | 346–347 |
| Recommendation letter(s), | 286–291 |
| For an outside person, | 287–288 |
| For employee terminated for incompetence, | 289, 290 |
| Positive, for terminated employee, | 289 |
| Qualified, | 288–289 |
| Request for, | 291 |
| Responding to, | 270–271 |
| Thank-you to senders of, | 273–274 |
| Unqualified, | 286, 288 |
| See also referral(s) |
| Redundancy, | 51 |
| Reference line, | 18 |
| Referral(s) | 102, 104 |
| Follow-up to, | 108–109 |
| Job interview request letters based on, | 248, 251–252 |
| Requests for, | 267 |
| Thank-you letters for, | 152, 153 |
| Reinstating credit, | 220 |
| Rejection letter(s) | 272 |
| To applicants whose applications were solicited, | 270 |
| To applicants who were recommended, | 270 |
| To partially-qualified applicants, | 267 |
| To summer-job applicants, | 269 |
| To unqualified applicants, | 263 |
| When someone else got the job, | 266 |
INDEX

remittance of payment, replies to, 365–366 renegotiating payment terms, 224–225 renewal(s)
of membership, 77–80
of sales contacts, 106
of subscription, 67, 70, 170–171 rental arrangement, credit terms of, 204–205 reply letter(s), 363–374 to clarification requests, 366–367 for conference registration acknowledgment, 364–365 to decline requests to speak, 374 to free products requests, 371 to information about members requests, 367–368 to job applications, see job application response letter(s) to materials requests, 368–370 to new product information requests, 372 for order acknowledgment, 363–364 for remittance of payment, 365–366 to sales letters, 370
for speaking requests, 373 reports, commendation for, 293 reprimand, letters of, 313–314 reprints of article, letters of, 313–314
replies to, 357, 375–379
for questionnaire completion, 352–353 for reprint of article, 357, 375–379
for return of materials, 353, 354
for return of overdue materials, 354 for seminar information, 351 for subscription cancellation, 358 Requests for Proposals (RFPs), letter accompanying, 228 research of facts, 3–5
reserving meeting facilities, 429–430 resignation, letters of, 307 résumés, letters accompanying, 253–255 retail credit, letter offering, 203–204 retainer offer letters, 112–113 retirement, 308–309, 452 returned check letters, 195–197 return request, for materials, 353, 354 reversion of rights requests, 387 reviewer(s)
permission to quote, 375, 379
thank-you letters for comments of, 394–395 transmittal letter with manuscript to, 336–337 transmittal letter with payment to, 330 revision process, 51
RFPs, letter accompanying, 228 rudeness, apology letter for, 135, 136 sales and marketing letter(s), 63–112 on anniversary of sales relationships, 111–112 to announce special presentation, 81–82 for appointment requests, 87–90 to ask for referral, 108–109 for business products, 63–65 for business service, 67–69 for catalogs, 83–86
to confirm proposals, 95–98 to congratulate on new membership, 77–78 with consumer catalogs, 83–86 for consumer products, 63–64 for consumer service, 63, 66–67 to difficult-to-see prospects, 93 for educational seminars, 71–73 for exhibit visitor follow-up, 102–103 for extending membership, 74–75 to find decision maker, 94–95
follow-up, 99–105
as follow-up to membership offer, 74–76 format for, 37
for health center membership, 74–77 of holiday greetings, 110–111 letters of interest as, 90–92 for lost sale follow-up, 99, 101 for meeting follow-up, 99–100 for membership renewal, 77–80 for phone conversation follow-up, 99, 100 for previous sale follow-up, 102–103 with professional catalogs, 83–86 to promote special sale, 109–110
for proposal follow-up, 105 for referral follow-up, 102, 104
with renewal notice, 80–81 to renew contact, 106
replies to, 370
to respond to catalog requests, 83, 84 to respond to product inquiries, 86 as response to confirming letter
follow-up, 95, 98
second-notice, for membership renewal, 77, 79–80
to sell customer additional services, 73–74 for subscription renewal, 67, 70 for subscriptions, 67
to welcome new clients, 107–108 to welcome new subscribers, 71–72 sales presentation
letter acknowledging, 230 letter requesting, 229
sales representative(s) complaint letters about, 241, 243 introduction from new, 57 introduction of new, 55, 56 salutations, 21–22
semicolon, use of, 464
semiblock format, 18, 22–25, 34
see also product or service information
letter(s)
shareholders, letters to new, 175, 177 “she,” 44
shipment(s)
apology for damaged, 148, 151
incorrect, 146–147
signature blocks, 24–25
simplified-letter format, 18, 19, 21–25, 35–36
singular words, 46–48
size of stationery, 30
social and personal letter(s), 389–452 to announce retirement, 452 for birthdays, 433–434
to compliment author on article, 432–433 of condolence, 450
to congratulate on opening of
business, 451
to congratulate people on new positions, 446–447
to express interest in speaking, 428–429
as follow-up to speech attendees, 431–432

American Management Association
www.amanet.org
social and personal letter(s) (continued) to hospitalized business associate, 448–450 to hospitalized employee, 448–449 to ill employee, 448

  invitations as, 411–417
  to invite recipient to charitable event, 416–417 to invite recipient to sit on a not-for-profit board, 417 for public service/fund-raising, 434–442 to request membership in club, 430–431 to reserve meeting facilities, 429–430 to thank a speaker, 409 to thank people, 389–407
  to thank recipient for leading a seminar, 408 social luncheons, thanks for, 403 spacing of lines/paragraphs, 22–23

speaker(s)

  arrangement confirmations to, 342
  invitations to, 412, 413
  invitations to hear, 414 letter with payment to not-so-great, 328–329 letter with payment to outstanding, 328 requests for material from, 355 thank-you letters to, 404, 409

speaking request(s)

  acceptance of, 373, 419, 421 decline of, 374, 423, 426–428 expressing interest in, 428–429
  replies to, 373

special events, invitations to, 412

special presentations, announcement of, 81–82

special sale promotions, 109–110 speech attendees, follow-up to, 431–432

spellcheck function, 50

split infinitives, 48–49

staff

  announcing changes in, 320–321
  commendations for, 297–298 stationery, 23, 24, 30
  status reports to job applicants, 259, 262 stockholder letter(s), 175–187 to accompany annual report, 175, 182–183 to accompany balance sheet, 175, 184–185 to accompany proxy for annual meeting, 175, 178 to announce annual meeting and requesting proxy statement, 175, 179 of confidentiality, 175, 186–187 as cover to annual report, 175, 183–184 to invite stockholders to annual meeting, 175, 181–182 to new shareholders, 175, 177 to offer memorandum for stock, 175, 185–186 to prospective investors, 175–176 for receipt of proxy statement, 175, 181 as reminder to send in proxy statement, 175, 180 stock options, offer of jobs with, 278, 280–281 stopping payment on check, 207 store closing notifications, 162 street addresses, 20, 38

structure

  of letters, see part(s) of a letter parallel (grammar), 49

Strunk, William, Jr., on structural design, 53 subject, agreement of verb with, 46–48

subject lines, 22

subject matter, analysis of, 5–6 subscription response letter(s), 170–175 about back issues, 170, 172–173 about cancellation and refund query, 170, 173 about price decrease, 170–172 about renewal notice, 170–171 for subscriber who says subscription never ordered, 174–175 subscription(s)

  renewal of, 67, 70
  request for cancellation of, 358
sales/marketing of, 67
substitute products, suggesting, 148, 150 summer intern positions, offers of, 281–282 suppliers, letters to, see vendors and suppliers, letter(s) to suspension of credit, 219
telephone conversation(s)
  confirmation of, 248–250
  job interview request letters as follow-up to, 248–250
  sales and marketing follow-up to, 41, 99, 100 templates, memo, 39
termination
  and good employee recommendations, 289 for incompetence, 289, 290 procedure for, 314
  progressive discipline preceding, 314 warning of possible, 313–316 termination letter(s), 314–319 for layoff due to corporate downsizing, 317–319 for nonresponse to warning letter, 316 testimonials, thanks for, 152 “than,” 45
thank-you letter(s), 389–407
  for advice, 401–402
  for compliments on article, 398
  for contributions, 390–392
  for customer referrals, 152, 153 for customer’s business, 152, 155 for customer support, 152, 154 for customer testimonials, 152 for dinner, 397
  for hospitality, 389, 391
  for nomination, 400
  for outing, 396
to panelist on talk show, 390, 393 to people who recommended applicants, 273–274 to professional for services, 399 to program chairperson, 405 to project participants, 407 to prospective employer for job interview, 252 to public service, 390, 392 to reviewer for comments, 394–395 to senders of recommendations, 273–274 to service provider, 406 to social luncheon, 403
to speakers, 404
to writer for mentioning person in article, 394 timeliness, 4–5
titles
  on envelopes, 38
  in inside address, 19–20
  in salutations, 21–22
  in signature block, 24–25 tone, 12–13, 55
transmittal letter(s), 325–338 to accompany payment, 325–331
  for contracts, 332
  for final invoice, 338
  for final payment of account, 331 for manuscripts, 335
  for payment of different amount from invoice, 327 for payment on account, 325–326 for payment to not-so-great speaker, 328–329 transmittal letter(s) (continued) for payment to outstanding speaker, 328 for payment to reviewer, 330 for requested materials, 333–334 to reviewer of manuscript, 336–337 travel plans, confirmation of, 344 unqualified job applicants, responding to, 263 unqualified recommendation letters, 286, 288 unreasonable customer requests, denying, 188 unsatisfactory products, complaints about, 241–242 vendors and suppliers, letter(s) to, 227–245 to accompany an RFP, 228 to acknowledge a sales presentation, 230 to award a contract, 231 to cancel a contract, 244 to complain about sales representatives, 241, 243 to complain about unsatisfactory products, 241–242 to compliment vendors, 237–239 to confirm oral instructions, 339–340 to correct billing error, 239–240 to fire vendor because of economic conditions, 245 to notify losing bidders, 232 to place orders, 233

   to request a sales presentation, 229 to request distributor’s name, 234 to request product information, 235 to request quantity discounts, 236 to resolve incorrect order received, 240–241 verb, agreement of subject with, 46–48 volume discounts, letters describing, 158, 160

warning(s)
   of possible termination, 313, 314–316 termination for nonresponse to, 316 welcome letter(s)
   to new clients, 107–108
   to new subscribers, 71–72
White, E. B., on structural design, 53 wordiness, 51
word processing
   fonts in, 30
   grammar check functions in, 43 memo templates in, 39
   spellcheck function in, 50 words
   correct use of, 455–459
   and direct statements, 10
   division of, 464
see also grammar issue(s)

   “you,” 13–14
   “you attitude,” 13–15