

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

No book is the work only of its authors. We owe much to the pioneers of marketing who identified its major issues and developed its concepts and techniques and how to communicate them. We are particularly indebted to the two great marketing educators, Peter Doyle (Warwick) and Jim Lynch (Leeds), to whom we dedicate this book. Also, among the pioneers who greatly influenced our work and academic lives are Michael Baker (Strathclyde), Malcolm Cunningham (UMIST) and Malcolm MacDonald (Cranfield).

Our thanks also go to our colleagues at the J. L. Kellogg Graduate School of Management, Northwestern University; the Kenan-Flagler Business School, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; and Aston Business School, for ideas, encouragement and suggestions. Also thanks to all our friends in the Academy of Marketing, European Marketing Academy, Informs, the American Marketing Association, the Chartered Institute of Marketing and the European Foundation for Management Development who have stimulated and advised us over the years. It has been an honour to work with so many people who have helped pioneer marketing in Europe.

Thanks to Maria del Mar Souza Fontan, Sylvie Laforet, Andy Hirst, Pedro Quelhas Brito, Ann Torres, Thomas Helgesson, Robert A. Van der Zwart, Samuel Pronk, and Kevin Done who have contributed excellent cases to this edition. Also many thanks to Brigitte Nicoulaud for her enthusiasm and expertise in updating and expanding the robust supplements package.

We were aided in our revision of this edition by many reviewers from universities and colleges throughout Europe who responded to Pearson Education's questionnaires and to whom we extend our thanks.

We also owe a great deal to the people at Pearson Education who have done a wonderful job in helping us develop and produce this book: Thomas Sigel, Acquisitions Editor; David Cox, Development Editor; Tina Cadle-Bowman, Editorial Manager; Peter Hooper, Editorial Assistant; Maggie Wells, Deputy Design Manager; Bridget Allen, Pre-Press Manager and Kay Holman, Senior Project Controller. We should also thank Patrick Bonham, freelance copy editor and proof-reader and Sue Williams, freelance picture researcher. A special mention should also go to Maggie Wells for producing such a wonderful text design, and to Katherine Harding, the exciting young artist whose original art adorns our cover.
