

the vision

The Leadership Group's overall aim is:

People working across tourism and hospitality are appropriately skilled and able, through the application of their expertise, to contribute to the growth and development of a sustainable, productive and profitable tourism and hospitality industry.

